INOCRATICSENT DARBIOON GOUNTY FARM

VOLUME 18--- NO. 21.]

CADIZ, OHIO, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1851.

[TERMS-$1,50 A YEAR

Scutinel & Farmer. lawyers, nor does any one care, who has PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY ALLEN, GILES & BLAIN, EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. the same length of time, tree.

The New Rates of Postage.

ON LETTERS. If paid in advance, If not paid in advance, ON WEEKLY NEWSPAPERS.

FREE. Less than 50 miles distant, 5 cts. per Quar. Over 50 and under 300 miles, 10 Over 300 and under 1000; " 15 " " Over 1000 and under 2000, " 20 " "

C. Pierce.

Boston-V. B. Palmer. New York—V. B. Palmer. Wheeling—D. Maclane, Esq., Freeport—Joseph Allen.
Moorefield—A. Jul. Schreiber. Westchester-Wm. Fleming. Franklin-Dr. E. Conaway. Rumley-Jacob Gutshall. Short Creek-Asa Holmes.

Stock-James Hoagland. Athens-Dr. Thomas Findley. Green-David McConkey. German-John Brown. North-A. F. Croskey: Monroe-Paul S. Ridgeway.

Washington-John Boyd.

Saturday Morning, August 30.

It was said the New Constitution was framed for the benefit of lawyers; and the law-Ohio State Journal lieve, knowingly untered as such.

got his start in the office of the St. Clairsville by the sheen of a new coat of French broad Gazette. The people of Ohio now along cloth, our public works know that he understands " Worth makes the man, want of it the fellow, how to do hard labor. James B. Steadman All the rest are but leather and prunello.

dates for Supreme Judges, and our candidate of the Journal demonstrate the necessity that for Attorney General, are lawyers. No man truth should be eternal, as it is, thank the can say that Governor Wood or Colonel Me- God who made it! dill have not shown themselvs as "worthy When the mendacious conductors of the and well qualified" as if they had never seen Journal convince their whig readers that lawa law book! We opine that no man, but the vers should not be elected to office, we trust silly fool who scribbles for the Journal, would they will remember that the whig ticket preobject to our supreme court ticket, and our sents twice as many claims to their distrust candidate for Attorney General, because the and desertion, as does ours to their hestility! men are so unfortunate as to be lawyers - Statesman, lawyers of first rate experience and abilities!

This cant of whiggery against lawyers, like everything else that comes from them, in the shape of appeals to the people—and insults every instinct of public decency, as well as every claim to public intelligence. It ple, and to attempt to carry out flut, base purpose by putting some entire class of citi-next candidate for the Presidency sens under the ban of their stander and apretonce of whig hatred against lawyers tea kettle full of hot water about the root. With all my faults to leve me still. Look at their own State ticket see, whether and it will effect ally cook the borers; with a With sentiment refined. they are not the men who first try to make out injury to the tree. the new constitution beneficial to lawyers of their party! There is Samuel F. Vintention their party! Sighed Mrs. Partington, their party! There is Samuel F. Vintention the Ligamies for the new constitution beneficial to lawvers of Governor, a lawyer, Ephraim R. Eckly, for three motal weeks. Fust I was seized with Lieut. Governor, a lawyer—(a poor one at a bleeding phrenology in the left hamshire that); Earl Bill is, we believe, about a third of the brain, which was exceeded by a stop-rate lawyer—(though sailing last winter under the honor of being a carpenter;) Henry now I'm sick with the choloroform morbus Stanberry, a lawyer; John Woods, a lawyer; There is no blessin like that of health, par Albert A. Blias, a lawyer; David H. Lyman, ticularly when your e sick. Charles C. Convers, a lawyer; Peter Odlin a lawyer; Bellamy Storer, a lawyer; George B. wages.

Way, a lawyer! We know not whether on sense or common honestyl

out three of the whig ticket are lawyers; and One dollar and fifty cents if paid during fourteen men on the whig ticket at least elev- Mr. Adams' Autograph. In complying with che year, or two alollars and a half after the year confirmed to.

Any person procuring five responsible subscribers to the Sentinel, will be entitled to a copy for light time to the fourteen men on the democratic for us. It appeared in this paper seven ticket began life by laboring with their own had attained his 74th year: strong hands. 3rd. To show the contrast in To all offices in the county where published, this respect between our ticket and that of the whigs. And 4th. To show what infamous liars and hypocrites are those whigs who charge us with favoring lawyers, while they, as a party, have selected a whig lawyer for every most important State office, and Agents for the Sentinel & Farmer for a large majority of all the State offices! The following named gentlemen are our The whigs themselves, during the constituauthorized agents to receive advertisements, subscriptions or Job Work. All contracts made by them will be strictly fulfilled by us; tntion as favoring lawyers, and as therefore Philadelphia-V. B. Palmer, E. W. Carr, unworthy of support, and now they propose first of all others, to put their lawyers in office to swear to support it. The whigs themselves have made the fact of a candidate being a lawyer, an objection to his election, and yet they propose a lawyer for almost every office-And we call upon the people to note these facts-none can fail to argue from them that fraught with falsehood, bald inconsistency and hypocritical professions, as has been and as is the course of the whigs, they can have no other designs than to bring disgrace upon the government under the New Constitution. to pervert it to public injury and to their own selfish ends, and to thus cause an unjust outcry for a reversal of the verdict given for hoest reform on the 17th of June.

We abominate this persecution of a class of men without any distinction of personal yers seem disposed to make the best of the merit, correct principle or public character. benefit. Every man on the Locofoco ticket we abominate the ignorant goose who thinks is a lawyer, with a single solitary exception. because a man happens to be a successful and eminent lawyer, he is therefore a just ob-05 As usual with that paper, the above ject of suspicion, distrust or denunciation. statement is an infamous lie-we verily be- Just as we abominate the man who will bow lower to a white kid glove, the smell of cod-Three of the gentlemen named on our fish and potatoes, or the gingle of a banker's State ticket are mechanics, having regularly twenty-live per cent shavings, than he would served apprenticeships; two of them are yet to the felt hat, the holden gray or the sun engaged in the business!! Two others are browned face of an honest laborer. We now engaged in the farming business, and would scourge from the land that lie upon one is a regular practising physician!!! John human dignity and honor, the man who wor G. Breslin and William D. Morgan are now ships classes or who sneers at classes. The engaged in the printing business-George man who abuses lawyers as a body for politi-W. Manypenny came into the State some cal purposes to day, would to night in a twenty years ago, a journeyman printer, and drawing-room be dazzled out of his senses is a farmer, having spent his whole life in the A lawyer may possess worth, and he may business, save when for a few years a con- be destitute of it. A lawyer may be a pat, tractor on the Public Works of the State riot, or he may be a traitar. The beattifudes Alexander P. Miller is a farmer having by are as attainable to lawyers as to the best his own energy drained out ponds in Butler men of any other class. St. Paul made no county, where he now makes an honest live- worse a Christian for having been a lawyer, libood by raising corn, pork, potatoes, and than did St. Peter for being a fishermen. all other articles "belonging to his profes- Thomas Jefferson, Roger Sherman. John sion." William Trevitt, of this city, is known Hancock, Robert Treat Paine, Richard Henall over the State to be a gentlemen of wide ry Lee, James Madison and Alexander Hamprofessional ability and skill, and has served ilton, ware lawyers. Dr. Franklin was a his country in the capacity of Chief Surgeon philosopher and printer; and John Witherof Col. George W. Morgan's regiment, du-spoon and Francis Hepkinson were preachring a portion of the Mexican War-the re-ers; and "Old Put" was a Knight of the maining portion in the regular service in that Plow. Who did most for colonial independence? We know we but utter common Gov. Wood, Col. Medill, our five candi-place traism, but the ignorance and falsehood

Duringa drunken quarrel at Roches stinks rankly with hypocrity and falsehood, ter, Aug. 11th, James Barrett struck his wife a violent blow on her head with his fist, from the effects of which she died in less than three hours. Barrett has been arrested,

The whig papers in St. Louis now are just takes the whig party to conceive a base discussing the propriety of calling a mass purpose of deception and trick upon the pco- meeting in that city, with a view of expressing their prefference for Mr. Fillmore as the 65 Peach trees should be very carefully How ineffably rotten and hollow is this watched at this season of the year. Four a the blacksmiths are always striking for high

Conway and Segur are or over have been baby jumpers. down tred moone fire

From the Albany Evening Journal. John Quincy Adams.

If they are not, all but two or at least, all In 1840, Mr. Morgan, the present Secrewhat is worse, most of them invariably hunt. tary of State, occupied a seat in Congres ing or holding office. We speak of those next to that of Mr. Adams. Several young facts, to show four things. 1st. That of the ladies in Mr. Ogle's District had requested ticket, six are now mechanics and farmers, for us. It appeared in this paper seven while we may add that our candidate for Go. years ago, but will be again read with undivernor now earns his living from the pro- minished interest. Mr. Adams, be it rememducts of his farm, and many more of our bered, when this spirited Poem was written,

> THE WANTS OF MAN. Man wants but little here below, Nor wants that little long." * — [GOLDSMITH'S HERMIT.

Man wants but little here below, Nor wants that little long." 'Tis not with me exactly so-But 'tis so in the song.

My wants are many, and if told, Would muster many a score; And were each wish a mint of gold, I still should long for more.

What first I want is daily bread, And canvass backs and wine; And all the realms of nature spread Before me when I dine. Four courses searcely can provide, My appetite to quell, With four choice cooks from France besides To dress my dinner well.

What next I want, at heavy cost, Is elegant attire; Black sable furs for winter's frost, And silks for summer's fire. And cashmere shawls, and Brussels lace My bosom's front to deck-And diamond rings my hands to grace; And rubies for my neck.

And then I want a mansion fair, A dwelling house, in style, Four stories high, for wholesome air A massive marble pile; With halls for banquets and for balls, All furnished rich and fine; With stabled studs in fifty stalls, And cellars for my wine.

I want a garden and a park, dy dwellings to surround, thousand acres (bless the mark) With walls encompass'd round, Where flocks may range and herds may low, And kids and lambkins play-And flowers and fruits commingl'd grow All Eden to display.

I want, when summer's foliage falls, And autumn strips the trees, A house, within the city walls, For comfort and for ease-But here, as space is somewhat scant. And acres rather rare, My house in town I only want To occupy—a square.

I want a Steward, Butler, Cooks, A Coachman, Footman, Grooms, library of well bound books, And picture garnished rooms. Correctios, Mardalen and Night The Matron of the Chair: Guido's fleet coursers in their flight. And Claudes at least a pair.

I want a cabinet profuse Of medals, coins and gems; A printing press, for private use, Of fifty thousand ems, And plants, and minerals and shells. Worms, insects, fishes, birds; And every beast on earth that dwells In solitude or herd.

I want a board of burnished plate, Of silver and of gold, urcens of twenty pounds in weight,
With sculpture's richest mould. lateaus with chandeliers and lamns. Plates, dishes all the same Percelaid vases with the stamps Of Sevres, Angouleme.

And maples of fair glossy stain Must form my chamber doors, carpet of the Wilton grain Must cover all my floors: My walls with tapeatry be deck'd, Must never be outdone; And damask curtains must protect Their colors from the sun.

And mirrors of the largest pane, From Venice must be brought: And scandal wood and bamboo cane For chairs and tables bought, av a On all the mantel-pieces, clocks Of thrice gilt bronze, must stand, And screens of ebony and box Invite the stranger's band. A ...

I want - (who does not want?) - a wife, Affectionate and fairs To solace all the woes of life. And all its joys to share; Of temper sweet of yielding will Offirm yet placid mind;

And as Time's car incessant runs. And fortune fills my store : I want of daughters and of sons, From eight to half a score." I want, fulns! can mortal dare Buch bliss on earth to crave?) That a I the girls be chaste and fair-The boys all wise and brave.

And when my bosom's darling sings.

With melody divine.

A pedal harp of many strings,
Must with her voice combine.

A pinno, exquisitely wrought,
Must open, stand apart;
That all my daughters may be taught.

My wife and daughters will desire Refreshment from perfumes, Cosmetics for the skin require,

And artificial blooms. The Civet fragrance shall dispense, And treasured sweets return: Cologno revive the flagging sense, And smoking ember burn,

And when, at night, my weary head Begins to droop and doze.

A southern chamber hold my bed, For nature's soft repose: With blankets counterpanes and sheet, Mattrass and bed of down,

And comfortables for my feet,

And pillows for my crown. I want a warm and faithful friend To cheer the adverse hour: Who ne'er to flatter will descend, Nor bend the knee to power. A friend to chide me when I'm wrong, My inmost soul to see: For him, as his for me.

I want a kind and tender heart, For others' wants to feel; A soul secure from Fortune's dart, And bosom arm'd with steel. To bear divine chastisment's rod, And mingling in my plan,

Submission to the will of God,

With charity to Man. I want a keen observing eye; An ever listening ear, The truth through all disguise to spy; And wisdom's voice to hear:
A tongue to speak at virtue's need, In Heaven's sublimest strain; And lips the cause of Man to plead, And never plead in vain.

I want uninterrupted health Throughout my long career; And streams of never failing wealth, To scatter far and near; The destitute to clothe and feed, Free bounty to bestow:
Supply the helpless orphan's need,
And sooth the widow's wee.

I want the genius to conceive, The talents to unfold Designs, the vicious to retrieve; The virtuous to uphold. Inventive power, combining skill; A persevering soul, Of human hearts to mould the will, And reach from pole to pole.

I want the seals of power and place, The ensigns of command; Charged by the people's unbought gra To rule my native land-Nor crown, nor sceptre would I ask, But from my country's will, By day, by night, to ply the task, Her cup of bliss to fill.

I want the voice of honest praise To follow me behind And to be thought, in future days, The friend of human kind; That after ages, as they rise, on' Exulting may proclaim, In choral union to the skies, Their blessings on my name.

These are the wants of mortal Man, I cannot want them long-For life itself is but a span, And earthly bliss a song. My last great want, absorbing all, Is, when beneath the sod, And summon'd to my final call: The mercy of my God.

And oh! while circles in my veins Of life the purple stream; And yet a fragment small remains Of nature's transient dream to My soul, in humble hope unsear'd, Forget not thou to pray, in kill That this thy wont may be prepared To meet the Judgment Days Washington, 14th June, 1840;

THE FATAL CONCEALMENT.

A THRILING TALK.

Some years after I commenced practicebut the precise date I shall, for officious air, and she sprang into the recess.

her. She was more than beautiful—she was busy when my friend entered.

The commenced in a round about way fasinating - she was captivating. Her pres-though I had some reason to believe they and those I was compelled to examine close- the were reciprocated; for when in my company ly for he was purtenacious and would not be melancholy. Powerful—most powerful was wife must be enduring, and I felt, that I servants know exactly how she was dressed the temptation to make an unreserved dis-could have kicked her, worthless husband. When I went home to dinner, the first thing closure of my heart, but I resisted it. That out of doors for keeping ber there. At last that I heard was that she had not returned. I had the firmness to do so, has been for he made a more as if keeping I started up and "What have you done?" Have you sent to I had the firmness to do so, has been for he made a more asif to go. I started up and was indulging in a delicious revery upon the subject of the lady of my heart, and the death, for the sake of having it a little sconer. The door opened, and Mrs. — outcred.—

I do not know exactly what I did; but it seemed to be a long time before I had the power to rise and welcome her, while she stood the stood the stood the stood while she stood the st me here," she began wim a property too laugh; "but is your astonishment really too recat to allow you to say, how do you do?" for his sake, dies a terrible and lingering from want of sir, for I distracted my own knowledge of the appearance of sufficiently look her hand. I fear I pressed it more. He is gone. I rush back into my room. The place was well supplied with ambitious as to hope that she would visit me her. In a few minutes my brain was clear a terrific chorns, passed by the sulten be and I must do it if possible."

I pretended to study the papers before me, a corpore. but the light danced and mingled; and if, by

I cannot well recall what followed. I only ity to snatch her up in my arms, carry her a great effort I forced my eyes to distinguish know that I tried every means for her resto-down stairs, at the risk of being snoountering to my whirling brain.

Every drop of blood in my body seemed not died from suffication.

I had once seen the body of a man who have time to study the ease, and promising sciousness. to let her know the result.

would you be so unreasonable as to require was striving and plotting. s under a fit of delerium tremens?"

"You are an incomprehensible person." she replied rather cooly; "so I shall leave for. you are going to have an attack of the de-might be that of a policemen.

word, though very anxious to prolong the parrison.

"Good God!" she exclaimed, clinging voice. If he finds me here I am rained." her husband.

"Don't be alarmed," I replied, endeavor- Now thought 1, an is ion. She was seen to reclaim was no go. The butter man had'nt the last ness and such hasiness, too! He would her. "Don't be alarmed," I replied, endeavorove you all the more for it?

"You don't know about this so well as I He is jealous exceedingly, of you; and oh! I fear not without some cause, me somewhere, for mercy's sake!"

across the room to a closet. "Can you stay here?" Lasked hastily. "I will leave the door ajar for air." "No, shut it—lock it—take away the key morning," he continued, turning even paler toma oes?" "Ten cents." "No," he replied, or I shull not feel safe. There is plenty of than before, "and it any thing serious should "I get but four cents, for I was obliged to buy

I was only happy when under its influence; respecting marriago settlements, &c., and yet after every indulgence in the latal pleasure I sank into the deepest despondent gave me to understand that all this regardence was to me like the intoxication of opium; question me upon certain points of the law perspiration from his face, and sank into a cy.

In my own justification I must say, that I wifes into his own hands.

It would be look betrayed my feeling.

He also had a copy of her relatives, wills. I inquir years my own consolation. The standard may be used to bow himsoul.

One morning I sat alone in my chamber:

My carried up and

What have you done? Have you sent the police and to the hospitate of the police and to the police and the police "come in!" in no very aniable humor, for I of this, money. I want it very much; but

It is my clerk-curses on him! I ground idea was correct; she had died from "Perhaps your surprise will be increased," my teeth in unavailing rage. I could have cause.

"When I tell you that I have come upon business."

I mustered something about not being so

I mustered something about not being so

10 to 1000 0

nothing but the interest. Now my husband closet. As I unlocked it, I remembered the plump, so full of warmth and life, was rigid is in want of a large sum of money at this moleok she had given me as I shut it, and I and cold—those eyes were glazed and ghastment, and I wish to examine this affair well wondered with a beating heart, whether the ly, and those lips clammy and hard. Tears that no ears less jeafously alive than mine | She did not rebuke me for calling her so, her spirit rested on mine, and inspired the And that my friendship proves as strong could have caught the meaning; "and poor and, emboldened by her silence I took her thought-for it burst upon me suddenly, as this reparation is, it is all that I can make, hand to lead her from her narrow prison .-- with a conviction that if executed at the in-She moved forwards and fell into my arms-a word, it conveyed not the slightest mean- ration to life; but alasl without success. Of ed by some of the other inhabitants of the one thing I was firmly convinced-she had house; bear her through the courts, and by a to be tingling and rushing to the side next was killed by the falling in of the mouth of against the wall. I pressed one kiss upon to her whose presence within a short distance a pit. I recollected his swollen and purple her cold forehead, and threw her into the of me was the only thing of which I had a face, and his lax, warm limbs. She was stream. Gladly, gladly would I have gone distinct perception. I hung my head to hide pale, rigid, cold. The tumult of her emo with her, and held her in my hearttill death;

Then I formed the project of shutting her "You are a tiresome creature," she said up in the closet, locking up the chambers with a little coquettish air. 'I really expect- and going abroad for twenty years. But heartily as ever. ed that for once in your life, and for a friend that idea was rejected as quickly as formed. I shall die a bachelor. I am lean and too, you might have got rid of the law's de- for it would be hardly possible that the pres- pale, and bowed and grey haired, and the lay, and give me your opinion in half an ence of a dead body in the house should be hour; so far, at least, as to tell me whether discovered before that time. Next, I thought there is a probability of my being able to do of setting fire to the place, burning all my as I desire. But I see you are like the rest books and papers, making a funeral pile of of the lawyers—time! I suppose now them; thus ruining myself and save the you will keep about it till I am dead; and secret. But that thought, too, was dismisthen it will go to my husband in the course sed. It might cause loss of life and property of law."

to many innocent people, and would be a Kelley was getting up the present system of "It may not require more than half an bungling proceeding after all; as, if the tire hour to ascertain so much, when I can di- was discovered early, policemen, firemen, rect my thoughts to it for that space of mob, all would break in, and finding her reason for more Banks, that they would lerium tremens, perhaps I had better send in In the morning a stranger called on busi- So far from driving out of circulation the ne doctor. Shall I?" ness. This of course, was nothing extraor notes of banks in other States, after the ex"Well, I don't anticipate an attack this dinary; but when he was gone I felt that periment had been tried, a whig legislature morning," I answered with a forced laugh; he was a detective officer, and had come as passed a law, making it unlawful for the Ohio "so I will not give you the trouble. The a spy. I thrust a few clothes into a carpet banks to pay out the bank notes of other fact is that I had been vio ently agitated a bag, intending to escape to France. I States, but the evil was not remedied. short time since, and my mind has not quite caught up a bunch of matches, to set the city banks pay no attention to the law, and recovered its equilibrium."

place on fire. I grasped a razor and looked the result is, that Virginia, Kentucky and We talked for a few minutes longer—she eagerly on its keen edge, as the surest and Indiana pour in their trash, while our trash quizzing me in her light, playful manner— swiftest way of ending my misery. But then goes to till up the circulation of Virginia, In-and I, delighted to be so teased, standing all these would leave her jests of the world diana and Kentucky.

of badinage. At length she went to the impartially and calmly upon that day; and I to gold and silver. Any one who attempts door, and I was about to escort her down can solemnly declare, that I would rather to go to market with a one dollar State bank stairs, when we heard some one speaking have been hanged for murdering her, than bill in his pocket will see the repudiation of to allowed a breath to sully her tair fame.

I had just laid down the razor, when a morning's since, and I will give the result.

You don't know about this so well as I unsettled way, "you remember the business some potatoes, but the one dollar bill was no that I came about yesterday." "Perfectly."
"And do you rememder the words I used I was in the habit of dealing, and bought

I do no know how it happened, but my you said about my not being able to touch led outmy dollar bill. "Have you no change," arm was round her, and I half carried her this money till after the death of my wife?" asked the tomato dealer. "Not the first copthis money fill after the death of my wife?" asked the tomato dealer. "Not the first cop-"Yes-I remember them distinctly," I per," I replied. He changed the note, and have happened, you know, and you should this change at a discount of six percent, with reasons, avoid mentioning—I had a friend at whose house I was a pretty constant visitor. He had a wife who was the magnet love. The next, I had locked the door upon be the consequence. I might be suspected Now. Mr. Editor, how comes it that the that drew me there. my treasure, thrown the papers she had of having murdered lier. I side said to be brought into a drawer, and was apparently. Poor tellow; if I had not known the truth

I should have suspended it myself, from his excessive terror and anxiety, ... He wiped the "better thon gold or silver," for so the which Where did she go how was she dressed? I inquired, anxious to know all I could ou

"I don't know. She told me she was en ing out shopping and visiting; but no on saw lier leave the house, and none of the

"Yes, and to every friend and tradesmu "You may depend upon it did replied we cy impressivity, which I will not repeat what there with a timed blush upon her face, and the starts, and defauned me there talking for the served self-possession during this interview, the glorious smile upon her fips; which make me feel that it would be too great a happiness to die for.

"I don't wander you are surprised to see me here," she began with a provoking little the generalities of the law, while his wife.

"I don't wander you are surprised to see the law, while his wife. The surprised to see the generalities of the law, while his wife. Of the dead—I shut myself up in the close the generalities of the law, while his wife. and I was alone—except for the company of the dead—I shut myself up in the close the two hours, to ascertain whether she died warmly, and held it longer than was neces- A step behind me makes me turn round .- air from several large crevices. My first from any other motive. She took no notice again.

of what I said, but I perceived that her face turned deadly pale; and that her hand trembled as she placed before me a bundle of run after him, and request him to leave stiff hand of the dead within my own. I those papers with me. Say to him I would thought drennily how often it had we come pers.
"You will see by these," she said in a low examine them more at leisure. Run fast, me with its soft pressure, while its eyes had hurried voice, "that some property was left and you'll overtake him!" beamed brightly into mine, and the full poutme by my uncle, and by my grandfallier, but so strictly settled, that even I can touch of the outer door, and sprang towards the light. Now that hand that used to be so and see, whether by the twisting of the law, same expression would greet my enraptured gaze when I opened it. There she stood sal. Unintentionally, I have done him a great wrong," she added, in a tone so low "You are safe dearest!" I murmured.

"You are safe dearest!" I murmured.

"You are safe dearest!" I murmured.

I was ready to believe at that moment that came a new idea of escape for her and me. I was ready to believe at that moment that stant, it would be crowned with success. flow could I otherwise have had the temer-way that I knew, into the garden. The river was running strong and deep from her emotion of which I was thoroughly door closed upon her.

but the impulse was still on me, and without door closed upon her.

but the impulse was still on me, and without delay I hastened back. No one saw me, I may well be believed that I was in no condition to give a professional opinion: but I got over the difficulty by telling her I must A few days after, I saw by the papers that her body had been found far down the riv-

Two years later her husband married aga'n. He is stout and ruddy, and laughe no sound of my own laugh is strange to me.

From the Ohto Statesman.

Mr. Epiron: Some years ago, when Alfred time," I replied and I know that the words there, all would be lost-for it was more to make money plenty-that a man with a 85 rattled like shot out of my mouth. "But to save her reputation than my life, that I bill on one of the branches of the State Bank, an artist to draw you a straight line while he In the mean time, I was a prey to the most live dollars in coin. Besides this, it was said. painful anxiety, I was sure that by that the new banks would drive out of circulation time she must have been missed and sought the irredcemable trush of other states; and Perhaps she had been seen to enter my Ohio have a currency of her own, "convertyou to your lawful and legal studies. But chambers. Every step that I heard, I feared able at all times, into specie, at the will of the stupid and dumb, scarcely able to say a and my own sufferings were nothing in com- But the failure of that experiment was nothing in comparison to the failure of the prodelightful moments, y keeping up the war At this distance of time, I can look back mise to make the notes of Ohio banks equal wildly to my arm; "that is my husband's hurried step crossed the ante-room. It was First I bourght a couple of pounds of butter (the article was scarce) and I out with the Now thought I, all is lost. She was seen State bank promise to pay one dollar, but is "My dear -...," he began, in a nervous ed and butter in pledge. Next I wanted as I was going? I mean in answer to what half a peck of tomatoes for a dime, and pulafter handing me the ninety cents, observed, "My wife has disappeared since yesterday "how much do you suppose I get for those notes of the Otrio Banks are at a discount of Poor fellow; if I had not known the truth six percent? Can you tell? I cannot a In order to give a gurrency to the people The question of what becomes of the pins has been satisfactorily settled. Now the hels open to the query, What becomes of the small change? Who can tell?

holder."

A voung man at Niasara, lineing occu crossed in love, malked out to the pro cipice, took off his clothes, gave one linger ing look at the gulf beneath him, and ther went home. His body was found the next norning-in bed!

00" If you wish to gelegood bargains, buy of people, who advertise. The increased amount of custom which a judicious system of advertising always brings to a store, enables the preprietors to sell at mades profite than these can afford the who have an excession. dental customer now and then, By Dir cont is horrible. Tue th egro said when he was structed be he hat I tell four Sushn, that I will a nicide il you won timvo me. bob asist a 16 Wall. John, as seen see you have

Re i 'ck-pockets and be